Ragging complaint against 11 students

Nanded : The second year students of the Government Ayurvedic College lodged a complaint of ragging against 11 senior students of the same college on Wednesday in the Wazirabad police station. As per a complaint lodged by five students, 11 senior students of the same college came to their rooms in hostel and took them in a room and tortured them. The accused students puffed cigarette smoke on the faces of the victim students which made them uncomfortable in breathing. They were also manhandled by these accused. On the basis of these complaint the Wazirabad police have initiated investigation against the accused. The complaint was signed by the students including Vishnu Karhale, Ganesh Ghaya, Aniket Mangal, Satish Mule and Mukteshwar Kartak. So far nobody has been rounded up.
